The Price Center Mission

The Price Center supports people with developmental disabilities by encouraging personal growth and participation in the community through social, living and work experiences that foster independence and respect individual preference and diversity.

Founded in 1977, The Price Center provides community-based services for adults and teens with developmental disabilities. The Center offers a wide range of services while also collaborating with other community resources to help strengthen the impact of our work.

We accomplish our mission through the implementation of day habilitation, residential, vocational, and family support services in the greater Boston area.

Elizabeth K. Hill
Licensed Massage Therapist,
Holistic Health Practitioner,
Reiki Master/Teacher.

I am a professional practitioner in herbs since 2007, working with clients on various levels. I have been a Reiki Master, Spirit and an intuitive healer as well. I hold many certifications and degrees in the healing arts and sciences including Reiki, aromatherapy, crystalology, herbalism, massage, and vibrational medicine. I have a degree in Complementary Medicine through the American College of Healthcare Sciences in Portland, Oregon. I received my massage therapy diploma from Career College and licensure in Oregon. I am a member of the American Herbal Guild (AHG), Associated Bodywork and Massage Professionals (ABMP), the International Association of Reiki Practitioners, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW).

My primary influence was Reiki (RMT) who has taken me through various levels of Reiki using the Usui system developed by Sensei Mikao Usui and a similar Egyptian energy healing system brought to light by Patrick Zeigler. Other influences include: Mary Glesige (LMT, RMT, Vedic Master), using the Usui Ryoho-Tibetan Tradition, Jim Herman, a certified Medical Intuitive/Trainer, DNA Activator/Trainer, and Barbara Jackson with The Association of Melody Crystal Healing Instructors. My approach in practice is an integrative one including flower essence therapy, holistic counseling/education to assist you in finding balance in spirit, mind, and body.
